Telenor's view on VimpelCom's strategy

- VimpelCom has attractive growth opportunities
- Telenor supports VimpelCom management in drawing up an international expansion plan
- Telenor opposes expansion through acquisition of expensive and often disputed assets from Altimo

Page 5

URS investment exemplifies unsound expansion decision

The URS transaction, November 2005

- VimpelCom acquired URS for an aggregate cash purchase price of $231.3 million plus $23.5 million of debt
- Telenor strongly opposed the transaction as the acquisition did not satisfy sound investment criteria:
 - URS was and is still a weak #4 operator in a highly competitive market
 - The acquisition was not supported by a solid business plan
 - The due diligence was insufficient and the risk elements were not carefully evaluated

Current status

- Based on market and financial development during 2006 Telenor maintains the view that the acquisition price was too high
- Telenor's business plan for URS still gives NPV ~0

	2006 Actual	VimpelCom Business case
Subscriptions, thousands	1 876	1 884
ARPU, US$	4,1	8,8

II. 2007 AGM

At stake — Leadership and direction of VimpelCom

- Elect a Board and leadership committed to long-term value creation and the interests of all shareholders
- Elect leaders with both global and regional competence as well as complementary skills to continue VimpelCom's growth and expansion
- Further develop corporate governance
- Future strategic decisions will directly affect minority shareholders

Alfa's control of VIP is not in the best interests of any minority shareholder

- Alfa has increased its stake to at least 43.8% over the past year, up from 32.9% in June 2006, through illegal street sweeps, swap transactions designed to circumvent Russian law and without making the disclosures required under US securities laws. Telenor East Invest AS v. Altimo Holdings & Investments Limited, et al.
- Alfa considers that its current ownership, which ensures the election of four of its nominees, provides it with "structural control" and enables it to "fully protect our shareholders". Kirill Babaev, Altimo Vice President, quoted in Vedomosti, March 22, 2007 and RBC Daily, March 22, 2007.
- Alfa has repeatedly made inconsistent and contradictory statements concerning its intentions with respect to VimpelCom, including that it intends to increase its ownership stake above 44%, which would give it the right under the VimpelCom Shareholders Agreement to nominate 4 non-independent directors.
- Alfa has a history of acquiring assets and then attempting to resell them at inflated prices to companies in which it has an interest. Examples include the attempted sale of Optima to Golden Telecom and the attempted sale of Sky Mobile/Bitel to VimpelCom.
- Alfa has a history of vexatious litigation against shareholders in companies it is attempting to control, harming the companies during the dispute.
- In Kyivstar, Alfa has tried to paralyze the company by refusing to attend board and shareholders meetings, appoint candidates for election to the board and otherwise participate in management of the company.
- Judge Lynch of the US District Court for the Southern District of New York stated in connection with Alfa's attempts to frustrate arbitration proceedings involving Kyivstar: "[P]laintiff, Storm and its parent [Alfa], have attempted, by means of friendly litigation in the Ukrainian courts, without notice to the other parties to the dispute in this case, to make an end run around the very process for adjudicating disputes...this effort should not be countenanced by this Court" ... "[T]he effort to disrupt the arbitration proceeding on the basis of collusive litigation in the Ukraine is basically a shabby tactic... and should not be condoned."
